Seventh Sunday of Easter

May 29, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

This Monday, May 30th, is Memorial Day. Here is a nice article, entitled "Why We Celebrate Memorial Day, A Lesson in Service and Sacrifice", by Tom McGrath. "What we remember - and honor - on Memorial Day is heroic sacrifice. We acknowledge those who nobly gave of themselves, even unto death, for a purpose they believed was greater than themselves. Since the days just following the end of the Civil War, Americans have gathered in late May to honor those who died in military service to their country. In the spirit of the day, we can also recall, honor, and pray for all those we know who have lived lives of service and sacrifice for the good of others. Sacrifice is more than suffering - One definition of sacrifice is 'the destruction or surrender of something for the sake of something else.' Though suffering is always a part of sacrifice to some extent, seeking suffering for its own sake is not sacrifice. Sacrifice implies giving up one good for a higher good. For example, a child gives up a day of play to visit an ailing grandparent, or a parent sacrifices watching a favorite television program to help a child who is struggling with homework. Life in the family is full of opportunities for service and sacrifice. Jesus: the perfect example of sacrifice - What counts in this definition is the phrase 'for the sake of something else.' Is that 'something else' worthy of the sacrifice we make? True sacrifice is always at the service of life. We learn this from Jesus, who made the ultimate sacrifice and remained faithful through his Passion, death, and Resurrection. Jesus' greater purpose for this sacrifice was our well-being - that we might have life and have it abundantly. This Memorial Day, as we remember all who have served and sacrificed on our behalf, let us not forget what Jesus was willing to give up for us - and the lessons we can learn from that perfect example of sacrifice." God Bless!

New High School in Rhode Island

Opening its doors in Fall 2023. Chesterton Academy of Our Lady of Hope is a brand new high school offering a classical education rooted in the Catholic tradition. The school offers its students an integrated curriculum spanning the humanities, arts, and sciences, all set within the framework of a robust Catholic worldview. The aim of Chesterton is to produce virtuous citizens and intellectually mature Christians. Please register for the upcoming virtual information session on May 26, 2022, 7:00 PM by visiting chestertonRI.org/may-update-registration. Participation from prospective parents is critical at this time to help us make important decisions about the school. POWER-PACK

“May He enlighten your innermost vision that you may know...the immeasurable scope of His power in us who believe. It is like the strength He showed in raising Christ from the dead and seating Him at His right hand in heaven.” —Ephesians 1:18-20

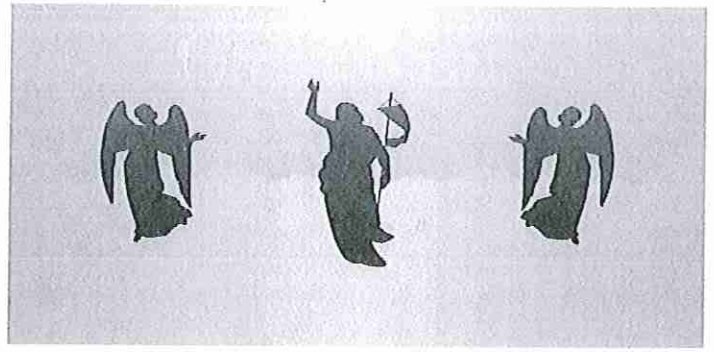

Jesus tried to tell us we had power to overcome all demons and to cure diseases (Lk 9:1). He told us we could “cure the sick, raise the dead, heal the leprous, expel demons” (Mt 10:8). He even promised we would do greater by far than He ever did, if we only believed in Him (Jn 14:12). However, Jesus saved the best till last. Before His Ascension, the risen Jesus, with nail-scarred hands and a hole in His side, was speaking to the apostles concerning the signs that would accompany those who had professed their faith (Mk 16:17). Jesus mentioned five signs: expelling demons, speaking new languages, handling serpents, drinking poison without suffering harm, and healing the sick (Mk 16:17-18). “No sooner had He said this than He was lifted up before their eyes in a cloud which took Him from their sight” (Acts 1:9). Jesus ascended “into heaven and took His seat at God’s right hand” (Mk 16:19). When a Man has split the clouds and left planet earth behind, He’s certainly proven Himself to be an expert on signs. When Jesus says to us: “You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes down on you” (Acts 1:8), He knows what He’s talking about.

Prayer: Ascended, glorified Jesus, may I believe in You, Your promises, and Your power now at work in me (Eph 3:20).

Promise: “I send down upon you the promise of My Father.” —Lk 24:49

Praise: “Thus you find Scripture saying: ‘When He ascended on high, He took a host of captives and gave gifts to men’ ” (Eph 4:8). Risen Jesus, we honor Your Ascension.

PODER ENERGÉTICO

“Que Él ilumine sus corazones, para que ustedes puedan valorar... la extraordinaria grandeza del poder con que Él obra en nosotros, los creyentes. Este es el mismo poder que Dios manifestó en Cristo, cuando lo resucitó de entre los muertos y lo hizo sentar a Su derecha en el cielo” (Efesios 1:18-20). Jesús trató de decirnos que teníamos poder para vencer a todos los demonios y curar enfermedades (Lc 9:1). Nos dijo que podíamos curar “a los enfermos, resuciten a los muertos, purifiquen a los leprosos, expulsen a los demonios” (Mt 10:8). Incluso prometió que haríamos mucho más de lo que Él jamás hizo, si tan solo creyéramos en Él (Jn 14:12). Sin embargo, Jesús guardó lo mejor para el final. Antes de Su Ascensión, Jesús resucitado, con las manos marcadas por los clavos y un agujero en el costado, hablaba a los apóstoles sobre las señales que acompañarían a los que profesaran Su fe (Mc 16:17). Jesús mencionó cinco señales: expulsar demonios, hablar nuevos idiomas, manipular serpientes, beber veneno sin sufrir daño y curar a los enfermos (Mc 16:17-18). “Dicho esto, los Apóstoles lo vieron elevarse, y una nube lo ocultó de la vista de ellos” (Hch 1:9). Jesús fue llevado “al cielo y está sentado a la derecha de Dios” (Mc 16:19). Cuando un hombre ha dividido las nubes y ha dejado atrás el planeta tierra, ciertamente ha demostrado ser un experto en señales. Cuando Jesús nos dice: “Pero recibirán la fuerza del Espíritu Santo que descenderá sobre ustedes” (Hch 1:8), Él sabe de lo que está hablando.

Oración: Jesús ascendido y glorificado, que pueda creer en Ti, Tus promesas y Tu poder ahora obrando en mí (Ef 3:20).

Promesa: “Y Yo les enviaré lo que mi Padre les ha prometido” (Lc 24:49).

Alabanza: “Por eso dice la Escritura: “Cuando subió a lo alto, llevó consigo a los cautivos y repartió dones a los hombres”” (Ef 4:8). Jesús resucitado, honramos Tu Ascensión.

Septimo Domingo de Resurrección Mayo 29, 2022

Queridos feligreses,

Este lunes 30 de Mayo es el Día de los Caídos. Aquí hay un buen artículo, titulado "Por qué celebramos el Día de los Caídos, una lección de servicio y sacrificio", de Tom McGrath. "Lo que recordamos, y honramos, en el Día de los Caídos es un sacrificio heroico. Reconocemos a aquellos que noblemente dieron de sí mismos, incluso hasta la muerte, por un propósito que creían que era mayor que ellos mismos. Desde los días posteriores al final de la Guerra Civil, los estadounidenses se han reunido a fines de mayo para honrar a quienes murieron en el servicio militar de su país. En el espíritu del día, también podemos recordar, honrar y orar por todos aquellos que conocemos que han vivido vidas de servicio y sacrificio por el bien de los demás. El sacrificio es más que sufrimiento: una definición de sacrificio es 'la destrucción o la entrega de algo por el bien de otra cosa'. Aunque el sufrimiento siempre es parte del sacrificio hasta cierto punto, buscar el sufrimiento por sí mismo no es sacrificio. El sacrificio implica renunciar a un bien por un bien superior. Por ejemplo, un niño renuncia a un día de juego para visitar a un abuelo enfermo, o un padre sacrifica ver su programa de televisión favorito para ayudar a un niño que tiene dificultades con la tarea. La vida en familia está llena de oportunidades de servicio y sacrificio. Jesús: el ejemplo perfecto de sacrificio - Lo que cuenta en esta definición es la frase 'en aras de otra cosa'. ¿Es ese 'algo más' digno del sacrificio que hacemos? El verdadero sacrificio está siempre al servicio de la vida. Aprendemos esto de Jesús, quien hizo el último sacrificio y permaneció fiel a través de su Pasión, muerte y Resurrección. El mayor propósito de Jesús para este sacrificio fue nuestro bienestar, para que tengamos vida y la tengamos en abundancia. Este Día de los Caídos, mientras recordamos a todos los que han servido y se han sacrificado por nosotros, no olvidemos lo que Jesús estuvo dispuesto a dar por nosotros, y las lecciones que podemos aprender de ese ejemplo perfecto de sacrificio." ¡Dios les bendiga!

Jesus Ascends into Heaven!

Today we celebrate the feast of the Ascension- when Jesus went up, body and soul, into Heaven. Forty days after Jesus rose from the dead He took his disciples up to a big hill and told them that He was going to send the Holy Spirit to them soon. Then He went up into the sky and disappeared behind the clouds.

At first it seems kind of sad that Jesus left His friends, doesn't it? But how could they be sad when Jesus was returning with joy to His Father in Heaven?

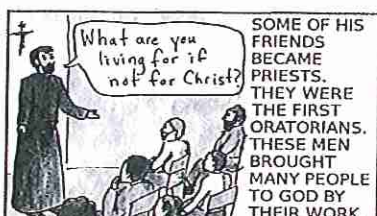

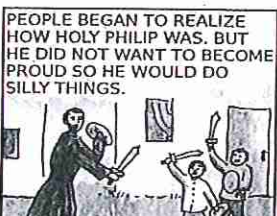

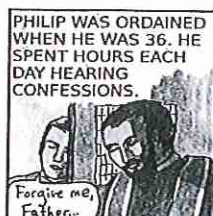

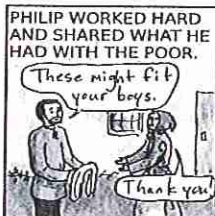

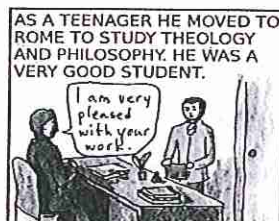

Sometimes we are sad when somebody we love dies or moves away, and that's okay. We can't stay with our friends forever in this world, but we will in Heaven. Jesus is there waiting for us to come and live forever with Him and all our friends.

So today we should celebrate Jesus' going into Heaven, and remember that He has gone ahead of us to make a place ready for us when we die.
