22th Sunday Ordinary Time

August 28, 2022

Dear Parishioners,
On August 29th, the Church remembers The Martyrdom of St John the Baptist. From Pope Benedict XVI's address on August 29, 2012, entitled "With love there is no compromise" - "With love for Christ, for his Word, for Truth, there are no compromises. This is what we learn from St John the Baptist, martyred for his fidelity to God's commandments, without giving in or drawing back, carrying out his mission to the very end'....John the Baptist did not limit himself to teaching repentance or conversion. Instead, in recognizing Jesus as the 'Lamb of God' who came to take away the sin of the world (Jn 1:29), he had the profound humility to hold up Jesus as the One sent by God, drawing back so that he might take the lead, and be heard and followed. As his last act the Baptist witnessed with his blood to faithfulness to God's commandments, without giving in or withdrawing, carrying out his mission to the very end. In the 9th century the Venerable Bede says in one of his Homilies: 'St John gave his life for Christ. He was not ordered to deny Jesus Christ, but was ordered to keep silent about the truth'. And he did not keep silent about the truth and thus died for Christ who is the Truth. Precisely for love of the truth he did not stoop to compromises and did not fear to address strong words to anyone who had strayed from God's path. We see this great figure, this force in the Passion, in resistance to the powerful. We wonder: what gave birth to this life, to this interiority so strong, so upright, so consistent, spent so totally for God in preparing the way for Jesus? The answer is simple: it was born from the relationship with God, from prayer, which was the thread that guided him throughout his existence...John the Baptist, however, is not only a man of prayer, in permanent contact with God, but also a guide in this relationship...celebrating the martyrdom of St John the Baptist reminds us too, Christians of this time, that with love for Christ, for his words and for the Truth, we cannot stoop to compromises. The Truth is Truth; there are no compromises. Christian life demands, so to speak, the 'martyrdom' of daily fidelity to the Gospel, the courage, that is, to let Christ grow within us and let him be the One who guides our thought and our actions. However, this can happen in our life only if we have a solid relationship with God. Prayer is not time wasted, it does not take away time from our activities, even apostolic activities, but exactly the opposite is true: only if we are able to have a faithful, constant and trusting life of prayer will God himself give us the ability and strength to live happily and serenely, to surmount difficulties and to witness courageously to him. St John the Baptist, intercede for us, that we may be ever able to preserve the primacy of God in our life." God Bless!

22 Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

28 de Agosto 2022

Queridos feligreses,
El 29 de agosto, la Iglesia recuerda El martirio de San Juan Bautista. Del discurso del Papa Benedicto XVI el 29 de agosto de 2012, titulado “Con amor no hay compromiso” - “Con amor a Cristo, a su Palabra, a la Verdad, no hay compromiso. Esto es lo que aprendemos de San Juan Bautista, martirizado por su fidelidad a los mandamientos de Dios, sin ceder ni retroceder, cumpliendo su misión hasta el final' ... Juan el Bautista no se limitó a enseñar el arrepentimiento o la conversión. En cambio, al reconocer a Jesús como el 'Cordero de Dios' que vino a quitar el pecado del mundo (Jn 1:29), tuvo la profunda humildad de sostener a Jesús como el enviado de Dios, retrocediendo para que pudiera tomar la iniciativa y ser escuchado y seguido. Como último acto, el Bautista testificó con su sangre la fidelidad a los mandamientos de Dios, sin ceder ni retraerse, cumpliendo su misión hasta el final. En el siglo IX, el Venerable Beda dice en una de sus Homilías: 'San Juan dio su vida por Cristo. No se le ordenó negar a Jesucristo, pero se le ordenó guardar silencio acerca de la verdad'. Y no guardó silencio acerca de la verdad y así murió por Cristo que es la Verdad. Precisamente por amor a la verdad, no se rebajó a los compromisos y no temió dirigir palabras fuertes a nadie que se hubiera desviado del camino de Dios. Vemos esta gran figura, esta fuerza en la Pasión, en la resistencia a los poderosos. Nos preguntamos: ¿qué dio origen a esta vida, a esta interioridad tan fuerte, tan recta, tan consistente, gastada tan totalmente para Dios en preparar el camino para Jesús? La respuesta es simple: nació de la relación con Dios, de la oración, que fue el hilo que lo guió a lo largo de su existencia... Juan el Bautista, sin embargo, no es solo un hombre de oración, en contacto permanente con Dios, sino también un guía en esta relación... celebrar el martirio de San Juan Bautista nos recuerda también a nosotros, cristianos de este tiempo, que con amor a Cristo, a sus palabras y a la Verdad, no podemos rebajarnos a los compromisos. La verdad es verdad; no hay compromisos. La vida cristiana exige, por así decirlo, el 'martirio' de la fidelidad diaria al Evangelio, la valentía, es decir, dejar que Cristo crezca en nosotros y que sea Él quien guíe nuestro pensamiento y nuestras acciones. Sin embargo, esto puede suceder en nuestra vida solo si tenemos una relación sólida con Dios. La oración no es una pérdida de tiempo, no quita tiempo a nuestras actividades, incluso las actividades apostólicas, pero es exactamente lo contrario: sólo si somos capaces de tener una vida de oración fiel, constante y confiada, Dios mismo nos dará la capacidad y fuerza para vivir feliz y serenamente, superar las dificultades y testimoniarle con valentía. San Juan Bautista, intercede por nosotros, para que siempre podamos preservar la primacía de Dios en nuestra vida". ¡Dios les bendiga!

Taking the Lowest Place

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus was watching to see where the people sat when they were guests at a dinner. Some people thought they were important so they sat in the more important places. Jesus saw that they were proud, so He taught them about being humble.

When we are proud we think that we are more important than other people, and that we deserve to have better things. We start to look down on everyone else, and pretty soon we start thinking that God isn't so great either!

Being humble means knowing that we really are not all that important, even if we are better at some things than other people or have more money or more important jobs. It means we know that God gave us these things to help others, not so that we could be proud about them.

We can only give glory to God when we are humble.

True or False: How to be Humble

What did Jesus say? Some of these are true and some aren't. Can you figure out which is which?

- If you know that you are an important guest then you should sit in the place of honour. True or False?
- If you go to a wedding feast and sit in a place of honour, someone more important might come and you will have to move to a lower place. True or False?
- If you sit in a lower place, then the one who invited you will tell you to sit in a more important place and you will be honoured. True or False?
- Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled and everyone who humbles himself will be exalted. True or False?
- When you have a dinner, you should invite the most important people so that they will invite you back. True or False?
