21th Sunday Ordinary Time

August 21, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

Last Monday we celebrated the Assumption of our Blessed Mother body and soul into Heaven. This Monday (August 22nd) is the Feast of the Coronation of our Blessed Mother as the Queen of Heaven and earth. These two feast days are intimately connected with one another, as well as with the Immaculate Conception of Mary which we celebrate on December 8th. The following article is from the website catholiccompany.com, entitled, "What the Catholic Church Teaches About Mary", explains: "When it comes to the Catholic Church's teaching on Mary, many of our non-Catholic brothers and sisters find the position Catholics hold regarding Mary difficult to accept. Namely, the Immaculate Conception, Mary as 'Mother of God', the Assumption of Mary into Heaven and her Coronation as Queen. However, this difficulty mainly stems from a lack of understanding. The Catholic Church firmly believes that Mary was immaculately conceived. Since God rejects all sin, and the purpose of Christ's incarnation was to release man from the grasp of Satan, it was not suitable that our redeemer be personally associated with sin. This means that unlike the original sin that we as humans inherit at the moment of conception, Mary was exempt from this sin, and in like manner, was not subject to sin throughout her life. In Luke 1:28, the Angel Gabriel addresses Mary 'Hail, full of grace!' The fullness of grace would not have been hers, had she any stain of sin. In the profession of faith we recite at each Sunday Mass, we proclaim that Jesus is the Second Person of the Trinity, that He is 'true God from true God'. Therefore, if Jesus is God, we must gather that Mary, the one who gave birth to, and nurtured Jesus, is the mother of God who became Man – Jesus. There is no other human to whom Jesus was as closely and intimately connected, as His Mother, Mary. The Assumption of Mary is one doctrine of the Church that has emerged from apostolic tradition, rather than directly from Scripture. After the course of her earthly life,

Mary was assumed body and soul into heaven by the power of God. The Church's belief that Mary's soul was perfectly sinless gives us confidence that she went directly to God. At the same time, her body was not subject to corruption, as our human bodies typically are. Mary's body has been glorified in heaven and she has been given an important role near her Son as Queen of Heaven and Earth. Mary is entitled 'queen' because she is the Mother of Jesus, who is truly a King of kings. With the queenship Mary has been given by her Son, Mary offers abiding mercy and compassion, interceding for all of God's children. Mary has been given an extraordinary role in the history of salvation. In response to her special status, Catholics give Mary unequalled admiration and respect, greater than any other saint. This is a tradition often misunderstood by non-Catholics. The honor we give to Mary is not to be compared to the worship and praise we give only to Almighty God. However, Mary must not be disregarded, as she offers many graces, and mercy to all who call upon her intercession. " Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen. God bless!

St. Rose of Lima, Spanish Santa Rosa de Lima, original name Isabel Flores de Oliva, (born April 20/30, 1586, Lima, Viceroyalty of Peru [now in Peru]—died August 24, 1617, Lima; canonized April 12, 1671; feast day August 23, formerly August 30), the first person born in the Western Hemisphere to be canonized by the Roman Catholic Church. She is the patron saint of Peru and all of South America as well as of embroiderers, gardeners, and florists.

Born into a noble family, Rosa (the name by which she was always known) was drawn to penitential practices and a spiritual life at a young age. Her mother wanted her to marry and initially refused to allow her daughter to pursue religious life. To deter suitors, the beautiful Rosa cut off her hair and blistered her skin with hot peppers. The struggle between them lasted 10 years, during which time Rosa made a perpetual vow of virginity, taking St. Catherine of Siena as her model. In 1606 her mother relented and allowed Rosa to become a Dominican of the third order, though her parents did not permit her to live in a convent. Instead, Rosa chose strict enclosure and contemplation and withdrew to the seclusion of a hut in the family garden, where she endured a life of severe austerity and asceticism. She regularly wore a crown of thorns, practiced fasting, slept only a few hours a night on a bed of potsherds, self-flagellated, and experienced numerous visions, particularly of the Devil. Though she was largely a recluse, Rosa was devoted to the sick and hungry in her community and often brought them to her hut to care for them. She was skilled in needlework and sold her fine lace and embroidery and the flowers that she grew in her garden to help her family and to raise funds for the poor. Her funeral was an occasion of public honour, and many miracles were said to have occurred after her death.

21 Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

21 de Agosto 2022

21th Sunday Ordinary Time

21 de Agosto, 2022

Queridos feligreses,

El lunes pasado celebramos la Asunción de nuestra Santísima Madre en cuerpo y alma al Cielo. Este lunes (22 de agosto) es la fiesta de la Coronación de nuestra Santísima Madre como la Reina del Cielo y de la tierra. Estos dos días de fiesta están íntimamente relacionados entre sí, así como con la Inmaculada Concepción de María, que celebramos el 8 de diciembre. El siguiente artículo es del sitio web catholiccompany.com, titulado Lo que la Iglesia Católica enseña sobre María, explica: "Cuando se trata de la enseñanza de la Iglesia Católica sobre María, muchos de nuestros hermanos y hermanas no Católicos encuentran la posición que tienen los Católicos con respecto a María difícil de aceptar. A saber, la Inmaculada Concepción, María como 'Madre de Dios', la Asunción de María al Cielo y su Coronación como Reina. Sin embargo, esta dificultad se debe principalmente a la falta de comprensión. La Iglesia Católica cree firmemente que María fue concebida inmaculadamente. Dado que Dios rechaza todo pecado, y el propósito de la encarnación de Cristo era liberar al hombre de las garras de Satanás, no era adecuado que nuestro redentor se asociara personalmente con el pecado. Esto significa que a diferencia del pecado original que nosotros, como humanos, heredamos en el momento de la concepción, María estuvo exenta de este pecado y, de la misma manera, no estuvo sujeta al pecado durante toda su vida. En Lucas 1:28, el ángel Gabriel se dirige a María '¡Salve, llena de gracia!' La plenitud de la gracia no habría sido suya, si hubiera tenido alguna mancha de pecado. En la profesión de fe que recitamos en cada Misa dominical, proclamamos que Jesús es la Segunda Persona de la Trinidad, que Él es 'Dios verdadero del Dios verdadero'. Por lo tanto, si Jesús es Dios, debemos deducir que María, la que dio a luz y nutrió a Jesús, es la Madre de Dios que se hizo Hombre - Jesús. No hay otro ser humano con el que Jesús estuviera tan íntimamente relacionado, como Su Madre, María. La Asunción de María es una doctrina de la Iglesia que ha surgido de la tradición apostólica, más que directamente de las Escrituras. Después del curso de su vida terrenal, María fue asumida en cuerpo y alma en el cielo por el poder de Dios. La creencia de la Iglesia de que el alma de María estaba perfectamente libre de pecado nos da la confianza de que ella fue directamente a Dios. Al mismo tiempo, su cuerpo no estaba sujeto a la corrupción, como suelen estar nuestros cuerpos humanos. El cuerpo de María ha sido glorificado en el cielo y se le ha dado un papel importante cerca de su Hijo como Reina del Cielo y la Tierra. María se titula 'reina' porque es la Madre de Jesús, quien es verdaderamente un Rey de reyes. Con el reinado que a María le ha dado su Hijo, María ofrece misericordia y compasión permanentes, intercediendo por todos los hijos de Dios. A María se le ha dado un papel extraordinario en la historia de la salvación. En respuesta a su estatus especial, los Católicos le dan a María una admiración y respeto sin igual, más grande que cualquier otro santo. Esta es una tradición a menudo mal entendida por los no Católicos. El honor que le damos a María no debe compararse con la adoración y alabanza que le damos solo al Dios Todopoderoso. Sin embargo, María no debe ser ignorada, ya que ofrece muchas gracias y misericordia a todos los que invocan su intercesión."

Santa María, Madre de Dios, ruega por nosotros pecadores, ahora y en la hora de nuestra muerte.

Amén. ¡Dios les bendiga!

Padre Sistare

Being Punished...

In today's second reading, Saint Paul wrote to the Hebrews about being disciplined by God. When we are young God wants our parents to make sure we behave well. When we don't behave He wants them to discipline us so that we will learn to be good.

Our parents don't punish us just because they are angry at us; they do it because they really love us and want us to learn to be better. Saint Paul says that the Lord disciplines the people that He loves.

Being punished is a painful thing, but we will be happy once we have learned our lesson and become a better person. Saint Paul says, "make a straight path for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but rather be healed." He means that when you are punished, you should stop doing the wrong thing so that you won't be hurt worse from the punishment, but will get better instead. So the next time you are disciplined or punished, remember that God is allowing it to help you become a better person. If you can, even thank God for giving you the chance to make up for your sin and learn a good lesson!
